GIFTS OF STOCK

Consider donating your appreciated stock to FRC. This method of giving has become increasingly popular in recent years as donations in the form of non-cash contributions may be donated to a public charity and produce great tax savings. For more information you may contact Roy Okma, Investment Team Chairperson, (201)657-0547 or at rokma@optonline.net

PLANNED ESTATE/LEGACY GIVING

A Legacy Gift is a wonderful way to provide support for FRC generations to come. The following chart summarizes some of the most common ways to make a planned gift. Together with your attorney and/or financial advisor, you can create a lasting legacy.

YOUR GIFT	HOW TO MAKE THE GIFT
Bequest in a Will	Name FRC in your will, designate an amount, a percentage, or a share of the residue.
Life Insurance	Contribute an insurance policy you no longer need, or name FRC as the beneficiary for part or all of your policy.
Retirement Assets	Name FRC as the beneficiary of the remainder of the assets after your lifetime.
Revocable Living Trust	Name FRC as the beneficiary of assets in a living trust.
Retained Life Estate	Deed ownership of your home to FRC but retain occupancy.
Real Estate	Donate property to FRC.
